

What Is An Emergency

'Emergency' is defined in Part 1 of the Civil Contingencies Act as 'an event or situation which threatens damage to human welfare in a place in the United Kingdom, the environment of a place in the United Kingdom or war on terrorism which threatens serious damage to the security of the United Kingdom.'