Hi Andrew

I think the applicants have demonstrated successfully that there are unlikely to be any archaeological remains here due to the depth of blown sand and the limited depth of the foundation level. I am happy to withdraw my request for an archaeological condition.

Regards

Sean

While we work on a replacement Local Plan for the Isles of Scilly, the Council has agreed a partnership with Exmoor National Park Authority for them to provide support and advice with the planning work on the Islands. If you submit an application or enquiry to the Council, Exmoor Planning Officers may progress this work on our behalf. Please be assured that the Exmoor Officers are in regular contact, and working together, with Planning Officers on the Isles of Scilly so that there is consistency of advice. Any final decision on an application will be taken by the Council in the normal way.
