I visit the Isles of Scilly most years and always spend time on St. Martin's - my favourite off-island.

This year, as I walked up from Lower Town Quay, I spotted this planning application.

I have often thought it a terrible waste that these buildings were not being put to good use. They create an unfortunate and unfair impression on the many visitors, including myself, soon after they start their visit.

Additional accommodation on the island seems eminently sensible and would surely be of general benefit to the island as a whole.

Therefore, I STRONGLY SUPPORT and APPROVE of this application.

Thank you.

Peter Stoakley
