Conclusion: The proposed shed, for the purpose of tool storage for the applicant is an ancillary domestic use. The storage building is large but is considered to be of a domestic scale that would not impact upon the visual amenities of the area or give rise to harm to neighbouring properties. No third-party storage or other commercial activity should take place to ensure no wider harm to the amenity of the area. A condition to retain this as storage for Melledgan only is recommended.

EIA: Due to the scale, nature and location this development will not have significant effects on the environment and therefore is not considered to be EIA development.
