

AmandaShep

wrote a review Apr 2013
Truro, United Kingdom
13 contributions4 helpful votes

Fantastic

"After only getting back from the Scillies a few hours ago I wanted to sit down asap and give a review to this fantastic little gem of a B&B made so by its lovely host Cath. Upon arrival we were given tea and cakes and chatted about the island, where to go and what to do. Our room (a twin) was immaculate and very spacious, with a spotless en-suite shower room. There are plenty of magazines, books, games and leaflets to entertain as well as flat screen TVs and a generously filled hospitality tray. The communal areas are tidy and homely and the place is chintz free. The B&B is only 5 mins away from the town and 10 minutes from the nearest eatery. You are central to exploring both sides of the island. Breakfast was a delight with plenty on offer and beautifully cooked. We will..."

Read more

Date of stay: April 2013

Helpful

ADS

wrote a review Sep 2012
Launceston, United Kingdom
9 contributions2 helpful votes

Fantastic

"What a gem, the owners offered us a great welcome on arrival and shared a welcome chat over a coffee, the three letting rooms are all lovely, very clean and comfortable. We took two of the rooms with out teenage son for a week. The breakfasts were superb and hosts could not have been more helpful. The location is quiet on the whole with the only slight drawback being the nearby waste incinerator, which did not disturb us at all. I should not talk it up any more or there will not be room for us next year!"

Read more

Date of stay: August 2012

Helpful

Jazzjays

wrote a review Jul 2012
2 contributions

Excellent B&B

"A very nice B&B with clean rooms and high standards. Comfy beds, TV, free Wi-Fi, iron board, hairdryer, torch and everthing else you could need is available. The host, Cath, is really friendly and cooks a great breakfast. The breakfast buffet also includes a tasty fruit salad. A great choice and location for a holiday in the Isles of Scilly. Anders and Sally, Stockholm, Sweden"

Read more

Date of stay: July 2012

Helpful

---

AlecF285

wrote a review Jul 2012

morecambe

1 contribution1 helpful vote

Excellent accomodation at Penhallow, Isles of Scilly

"Penhallow guest house is a modern house built on a slope on the outskirts of Hugh Town. But don't worry this is less than 15 minutes from the quay and if your luggage is labelled it will be delivered for you. When you arrive Cathy and Kevin will give you a warm welcome and probably a cup of tea. The house is very clean and tidy; plenty of solid clean wood. The rooms are spacious and very comfortable, with good beds and en suite bathrooms including excellent shower. Kettle and hairdryer are provided and there is a fridge for guests to use. The rooms display the work of some of the local artists and this gives an introduction to the delights of the Isles of Scilly Cathy is a trained chef so you can be sure of a good breakfast from a full English breakfast to Scottish porridge and..."

Read more

Date of stay: July 2012

Helpful

---

Crystalfox

wrote a review Jul 2012

Harrogate, North Yorkshire

161 contributions64 helpful votes

A hidden Gem.....Shhhhhhhh!!!

"My husband and I wanted to stay for two nights in Scilly in July this year. I rang EVERY B&B on St Mary's who were all fully booked or didn't want to take a 2 night booking. Eventually by surfing the net I found Penhallow, that had just opened up late lat year. But I actually don't want to tell any of you about it because it was so lovely that it will now become the most popular place to stay on Scilly to stay. Set at the end of Pilot's Retreat just up from Hugh Town, this delightful B&B is run by Cath and Kevin Sherris. The rooms are beautiful, comfy and clean and the breakfast was amazing. Cath and Kevin were the most hospitable, and helpful people I have ever stayed with and would go again without even thinking about it. There is a little communal fridge for you to..."

Read more

Date of stay: July 2012

Helpful

---

Previous

Next