Charming B &amp; B

We had a nice room with really good coffee and tea making possibilities. The room was ok, the bathroom was really good, as also cleaning was as you could wish. Carole AND her son Joe are remarkable people, so war and such good hosts ! This starts with a really splendid breakfast, whatever you like, it's there we think, but most of all the willingness of helping you out with any situation that may occur is remarkable and feels real warm. Thanks !

Perfect...

My daughter and I have just returned from 4 nights in this most lovely of guest houses. The welcome we received was second to none. Carole is quite simply the most charming of hosts and we felt at ease immediately! Our immaculate room, and indeed, the rest of the building is superbly appointed with great decorative taste. Furnishings are of a high quality and the towels are good and fluffy! The rooms are private and quiet and the decking area for guests to use is handy to sit out in for a cup of tea. Although you are only a hop and a skip from the beach and its gorgeous views.

Breakfast was lovely with such a wide and healthy selection, all beautifully presented. Something for all tastes and appetites. Close by there are some great places to eat and drink, all good quality in our experience!

Carole and her family embody the friendliness of the Scillies, and will help in every way they possibly can. You too will be beguiled....!
