Thank you for consulting us on this application. We note the amended Design and Access Statement, which now includes a heritage statement, and which considers the wider heritage significance of the building and the potential impacts and interventions on the historic fabric and character that are proposed as part of the application.

Having considered this further evidence, and the proposal as a whole, in this instance we consider it unnecessary for an historic building record to be undertaken as part of the adaptation of this early glasshouse, should consent be granted. Therefore, no archaeological mitigation is required, and therefore no archaeological condition is sought.
