

As you can see it has now got top heavy in spite of regular attention. It is also perilously close to the house. It is a shame as trees of this size are rare on St Mary's. If you stand by the Tourist information office and look towards the Garrison, to the left of Huegh House between the two steep pitched roofs of Gwenter and Elsinore it is very prominent. It will be missed.

RECEIVED
By A King at 7:25 pm, Oct 03, 2021

