Dear Madam,

I, like other people on Bryher are appalled at the decisions being made on our behalf despite representation from the Island. I would have thought that Isles of Scilly Councillors would be aware of the devastating affect that this could have on our Tourism businesses, and also the cost of so much unnecessary work being undertaking that will be of no benefit to us and will spoil some of our lovely beaches and unsettle the wild life on the island.

I have lived and worked in Tourism on Bryher since 1969, I realise that change and alteration is needed, but we have always managed to work with the appropriate authorities and their representatives. This has always entailed full and frank consultations and we have always managed to arrive at a solution that addresses local concerns.

I feel that there is a certain arrogance being directed towards Bryher Residents which is not helpful, and I think before any works are undertaken, we go back to a 'full and frank consultation'.

Regards

Kathy Stedeford
