With the new museum planning I believe something should be done to make sure the Thai van and fish and chip van stays on Porthcressa. After the council spent over 5 million pound on Porthcressa bank, what happened? they allowed the pub and restaurant on Porthcressa to close and be turned into a private house leaving only one restaurant, which is booked up most of the year, as it is so popular. People love to go to the vans then sit on Porthcressa. They do not want to go elsewhere to eat their takeaways. There is also food on the Strand so please do not mess up Porthcressa again.
