Dear Lisa,

Re: Replacement of bird hide. Higher Moors Nature Trail, Porth Hellick, St Mary's, Isles of Scilly

Thank you for your email of 19th November regarding the above proposal.

Natural England notes that your authority, as competent authority under the provisions of the Habitats Regulations, has screened the proposal to check for the likelihood of significant effects.

Your assessment concludes that the proposal can be screened out from further stages of assessment because significant effects are unlikely to occur, either alone or in combination. On the basis of the information provided, Natural England concurs with this view.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions regarding this advice.

Best wishes

You don't often get email from lisa.walton@scilly.gov.uk. Learn why this is important

Dear Clare,

Further to Natural England's consultation response to the above application, we have now undertaken a HRA Screening of the proposal. This is uploaded to our website here: <https://www.scilly.gov.uk/planning-application/planning-application-p24057ful>

I have also attached a copy for ease of reference. We would be very grateful if you could provide a response to this authority within the next 14 days, so we are able to issue a timely decision.

Any problems please let me know

Thanks

Lisa

Chief Planning Officer | Council of the Isles of Scilly

TEMPORARY NOTICE: The Department will be short-staffed as of Monday 14th October 2024. Please bear with us until we are fully staffed, in the meantime please accept our apologies for delays in responses.

Thank you

CAVEAT TO PLANNING ADVICE: Any advice given by Council officers for pre-application enquiries does not indicate any formal decision by the Council as Local Planning Authority. Any views or opinions are given without prejudice to the formal consideration of any planning application. The recommendation on any application can only be made after the Council has consulted local people, statutory consultees and any other interested parties in accordance with statutory procedures. The final decision on an application will then be made by the Full Council or by the Chief Planning Officer under delegated powers in accordance with the Council's approved Scheme of Delegation and Planning Protocol, and will be based on all of the information available at that time. You should therefore be aware that officers cannot guarantee the final formal decision that will be made on your application(s).

PLEASE NOTE: I work on a hybrid basis, with some partial remote working. Phone calls do, however, ring through to wherever I am working. If your call is unanswered, voicemails will be picked up and calls returned as necessary. If you do have a planning enquiry then it is best to put this in writing, ideally by email as there is a delay in the processing of post.

PRE-APPLICATION ADVICE: The Planning department offer a bookable appointment system, which allows people to book a slot to speak to us in person. Currently this is only on a Monday morning and slots are limited. If you do wish to book a slot, please use the link below. As of 2025, the Council will be introducing a charge for pre-application advice. We have published our charges online, on the Planning pages of the Council's website. We have also created an online form to book pre-application advice: <https://forms.office.com/e/pRkyKrpQuD>

PLANNING ENFORCEMENT: If you are looking to report a breach of planning control please go to this page: <https://www.scilly.gov.uk/planning/planning-enforcement> and complete the required form. All reports of treated in confidence.
